DEC 11-FEB 12
WINTER EDITION

JC1 Students & Parents:

We had another AWESOME youth convention in LaCrosse back in the fall. Many of the students who went came back ready to study Scripture, and to do so we've gotten many students into using a 24-week Bible study source called "LUP," which stands for Love-Understand-Process. The daily Bible readings are short, from 1-12 verses daily, and comes with three questions to help you process through the day's reading. The source is divided into six 4-week study guides, which can be found at www.lakelandassembly.org/jc1. Simply go there and click on "Ignition Seven for New Believers" under the Resource tab. Then, click on the second "click here" button to go directly to the Bible reading study source "LUP." This is a great source for anyone, whether you've never studied Scripture before, or whether you've read a lot of Scripture but maybe tend to read rather than process. It's great stuff!

Our Thrive meetings have been going awesome since youth convention as well. Our studies are taking us through important pieces of the Old Testament in order to learn the history of who we are as followers of Christ. This is another great tool for growth!

Finally, this winter, we're going to have a new event called "Winter Getaway 2012" on February 24-26. It's meant to be a cost efficient ($45) yet highly impacting and enjoyable weekend. We'll go down to Janesville and take part in The Pulse Youth Ministry's winter lock-in, with guest speaker Jason Maupin, then stay in Janesville at Holiday Inn and come back to Minocqua on Sunday, with some shop time and pool time and other fun time fit in before getting back.

Have a GREAT Winter!
